Dear Mr. Albert,

This afternoon I purchased a box of .308 Caliber ammo for the sole purpose of shooting at wolves and coyotes. I was amazed and somewhat disgusted in that I had to sign a register, with my name, address, age, and date of birth.

It isn't the thought of the dealers knowing my name, etc. that irritates me, it's the principal behind the whole thing.

I'm sure this law was passed thru the same basic procedures, and under the same (although somewhat modernized) democracy as was the Bill of Rights; but if so, where was the voice "of the people" and how can a law that only embarrasses and hinders the innocent people,

be "for the people"?

I just wish to say that I am strongly opposed to the Gun Control act of 1968 and if you can and will help abolish and/or prevent any more such laws,
that I as well as many other sports lovers will certainly appreciate it.

yours Sincerely,
Robert L Daniel

Dear Mr. Daniel:

Thank you for your letter. I am sure you know that I voted against the gun control bills offered in the last Congress and that I was instrumental in having struck from the bill the proposed registration and licensing requirements. A great many bills which would amend last year's legislation have been introduced. It is too soon to judge the nature of any amendments which will be reported from the Committee but when we have this matter on the Floor of the House, I certainly will see what I can do to repeal this ridiculous law.

Sincerely,

CARL ALBERT, M. C.
